

As We Come to You in Prayer

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray,
Take our hearts and minds far away,
From the press of the world all around,
To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love;
May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere
Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

QUOTE

If your prayers--yes, your prayers, feeble as they may seem--are sincere, if they are mixed with faith, then you may know that Jesus liveth to make intercession for you. The persevering, sincere seeker will surely be the finder, for as soon as you approach the mercy seat in faith, then Christ regards you as His client. He espouses your cause; He makes it His own. He is standing before the Father, your Substitute, your Surety. When you seek the Lord with all your heart, "In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength." Isaiah 30:15. 1888 Study Materials, p. 869
